

Whiting Ranch Cache

Contributed by ZenBabes

This is the first “approved” cache in Whiting Ranch Wilderness Park! You’ll see some great views and, since it’s a ZenBabe cache, get a workout in. The first cache location is at the Four Corners section of the park. There you will find coords for the second and final cache which is within a mile of the first. Maps are available at the Portola Parkway and Glenn Ranch Rd entrances to the park. It is a multi-cache.

NOTE: ABSOLUTELY NO bushwhacking is needed to do this cache. Stay on the marked trails! The final cache is within arm’s reach.
